NPVI's most successful activity during 2011 was the continued distribution of the second edition of the book entitled "Every Vote Equal: A State-based plan for electing the President by National Popular Vote. This 834 page book was distributed to interested parties in all 50 States, including libraries, schools, elected officials at the Federal & State level, non-profit organizations, and numerous individuals. The book contains an in-depth analysis of the election of the President starting with the very first election.
In addition, the book discusses all of the proposals that have been advanced for the election of the President, including the proportional, Congressional District and the National Popular Vote Proposal.

Another important activity conducted by NPVI during 2011 was the holding of educational

Pt VI, Line 5 Diversion of Assets - See summary below:

- Pt VI, Line 5
1. The corporate directors and officers learned during 2011 that the corporate treasurer, unbeknownst to the other officers and directors, diverted funds to her personal use at times undetermined at the present time;
 2. Such diversion was part of an elaborate scheme by the treasurer to divert funds from a variety of clients for whom the treasurer served as a trusted treasurer for decades;
 3. The amount of funds diverted is not exactly known presently since the bank records are frozen, but are estimated to be approximately $1,318,000;
 4. The filer has cooperated with investigations by the FBI and other law enforcement bodies, has retained the services of an experienced attorney to attempt to recover the diverted funds from several sources, has cooperated with efforts by other non-affiliated affected organizations to sue the treasurer for recovery of funds, and has instituted actions to avoid any such possibility from occurring again.

seminars throughout the country. NPVI conducted over 15 educational seminars in numerous states that brought together legislators at the federal, state and local level, community leaders, academics, non-profits and other groups and individuals interested in how best to elect the President of the United States.

2011 Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

National Popular Vote Institute (NPVI)

One of NPVI's most successful activities during 2011 was the continued distribution of the third edition of the book entitled "Every Vote Equal: A State-Based Plan for Electing the President by National Popular Vote. This 834 page book was distributed to interested parties in all fifty states, including libraries, schools, elected officials at the federal and state level, non-profit organizations and numerous individuals. The book contains an in-depth analysis of the election of the President starting with the very first election. In addition, the book discusses all of the proposals that have been advanced for the election of the President, including proportional, congressional district and the national popular vote proposal.

Another important activity conducted by NPVI during 2011 was the holding of educational seminars throughout the country. NPVI conducted over 15 educational seminars in numerous states that brought together legislators at the federal, state and local level, community leaders, academics, non-profits and other groups and individuals interested in how best to elect the President of the United States.
